FAITH AND SHARING RETREAT TO BE HELD AT BERGAMO

DAYTON, Ohio, March 2, 1990--A Faith and Sharing Retreat, designed to bring together people of various gifts and handicaps, will be held at Bergamo Center, 4400 Shakertown Road, from March 30 to April 1. The retreat is sponsored by Ministry with Handicapped People, a program of the Office for Ministry and Religious Education Services (MORES) at the University of Dayton.

"The Faith and Sharing Retreat is a two-fold encounter with God and our neighbor," said Brother Ross Maguire, S.M., project coordinator. "We all come together as one to deepen hope, love and faith; to pray and reflect on the Beatitudes; and to support one another in the desire to live out the Gospel life." A special effort is made to reach out to those who are homeless and those who have handicaps.

Father Jim O'Donnell, North American coordinator for Faith and Sharing Retreats, will be the guest speaker at the Bergamo retreat. Small group discussions, private and shared prayer, and opportunities for times of silence and reflection will be featured during the weekend.

Cost for the three days, including meals, will be $50 for participants who stay at Bergamo and $20 for those who commute. Organizations, businesses and parishes who wish to contribute funds for financial assistance scholarships for the retreat may contact the MORES office at UD.

For registration materials or more information, contact the MORES Office, University of Dayton, 300 College Park, Dayton, Ohio, 45469, or call (513) 229-4356.
